Summer's End Corvette Show

Four of Legends members went to Arkansas for the 24th Annual Summer's End Corvette Show August 27 & 28. Al and Barb Macdonald drove up Wednesday. Linda and Ken Dobbs left Thursday morning. They made it to McKinney and had to pull off the road to check the trailer. It was swaying badly. The column shift linkage broke. They got it fixed and got to the Holiday Inn in Springdale, Arkansas just after midnight Thursday!

Friday night the Northwest Arkansas Corvette Club, furnished burgers, hot dogs and chicken, plus dessert was good. Friday night Billy Flash was playing on the patio. It was really good music.

Saturday, was the the car show at Pinnacle Hills Promenade Mall a few miles away in Rogers, Arkansas. Approximately 200 Corvettes showed up and lined the streets of the shopping center. There were lots of good looking cars, but there were not any C-1s. There were six or seven really nice C-2s!

At the awards banquet Saturday night back at the hotel, they had a group of teenagers who sang the national anthem, who did a fantastic job!!

Barb says: Ken and Linda Dobbs took their beautiful 1963 Split-Window Coupe to the show. We got to park next to them and get the fall-out from everyone, who was coming by to admire it. They received the Best in Class award. Our Lime Rock Green was the only C7 of that color and so we got some attention too, and a Class award. Best in Show was won by a beautifully detailed Black Rose C7. The host club did a super job and we met a lot of nice people.

CORVETTE
LEGENDS OF TEXAS
GENERAL MEETING
MINUTES
September 11, 2021
Hula Hut,
Little Elm

Duffy Oyster, owner of the Hula Hut, with his 50th Anniversary special edition.

Prior to the official start of the meeting, Duffy Oyster, owner of Hula Hut, gave an interesting insight into his appreciation for Corvettes. Starting with a description of the initial Corvette prototype introduced in 1953, when only 300 were produced and sold only to VIP's. He then traced the history to the specially-designed 50th Anniversary Corvette. When GM rejected the design and stayed with a traditional style for anniversary models, former GM designer Steve Pastiner bought the rights and factory molds, created Advanced Automotive Technologies and produced a limited number of the 50th Commemorative Edition. This retro styling blended the classic styling of the 1953 with the performance, comfort and technology of the 2003. After the first five were produced on a C5 chassis provided by GM, the customers provided the C5 Corvette to build on. Duffy owns one, and his prize Corvette was parked outside for everyone to view.

The meeting was called to order by President Sam Denault at 12:45 pm. Attendance was 49.

New Member: Diane Gibson

Lady Legends Winner: Linda Rockett

50/50 Pot Winner: Greg Singleton ($85)

Diane Preston asked if anyone did not receive Sept. Newsletter. She wants to insure mailing labels are right.

Dennis Conte ordered name tags for new members.

Len Woodruff and several other club members attended the Mecum Auction and provided auction hand-outs. Sam Denault has been contacted by the Auction about the possibility of Legends having a club meeting during their auction next year, when in Dallas. The club would have a conference room and presentation by staff. Complimentary tickets to the Auction would be given to those attending.

The next Meeting will be Oct. 9 at Sneaky Pete's in Lewisville. The Nov. 13 meeting will be at BJs Brewhouse in Addison. The Dec. 11 meeting will be at Los Lupe's Tortilla in Addison.

Tom Hubbert has 28 cars signed up for the Texas State Fair on Oct. 2. More Corvettes can be accommodated, but Tom must have head count to turn into Fair officials by Sept. 15. Details for meeting and caravanning will be provided in the Newsletter and via e-mail.

Denise Iverson is doing a super job keeping club members up to date. She is changing web site providers; plan for a smooth transition to the new site.

The Sept. Newsletter provided details for the Sept. 18 Lewisville Parade. Tom Atchison encouraged members to bring their Corvettes to the parade, decorate the cars, and meet for lunch afterwards at the Korner Café. He also mentioned the Dec. 4 Lewisville Christmas Parade for club members to participate in. And said to put the Jan. 8 After Holiday Party on your calendar.

Bill Preston invited owners of C1's to his house on Sun., Sept. 12 for a Solid Axle Tech Session on replacing rear wheel bearings. Tom Parsons, an expert on C1 differentials and rear drive trains, will conduct the seminar.

NCRS Lone Star Regional will be held at the Embassy Suites in Frisco Oct. 21-23, subject to change based on Covid. Meeting Adjourned at 1:20 pm.
