A DRIVE DOWN TEXAS' WINDIEST ROAD: THE TWISTED SISTERS

During our club trip to Fredericksburg, TX in November Dennis Conte will lead a cruise on this great road. A lot of Texas is flat and the roads are straight, running across wide-open vistas toward a vast horizon.

In the Hill Country, however, the southern prairie rises into an expanse of rugged terrain, filled with mesquite-peppered canyons, limestone bluffs, and winding rivers that cut through the plateau.

The picturesque region offers some of the state's best roads for scenic drives. And while there are hundreds of miles of beautiful roads to explore in the Texas Hill Country, few can match the stunning adventure offered by the famed Twisted Sisters.

Here's a guide down the windiest road in Texas.

The Twisted Sisters refers to three farm-to-market roads that create a 100-mile loop through the heart of the Hill Country. FM 335, 336, and 337E are all two-lane, black-asphalt roads that twist through some of the toughest terrain in Texas. That route makes for stunning views of the sides of the road, which twist up the hills, race down through canyons, and bend along the edges of cliffs. It can also make for dangerous driving. A sign on Road 336 warns that since 2006, 10 motorcyclists have lost their lives on the Twisted Sisters.

You may find your knuckles turning white as you tackle the Twisted Sisters' challenges. These include hairpin turns, steep hills, falling rocks, severe drop-offs, uneven asphalt, and livestock that wander onto the road. One 15-mile section of the road boasts more than 65 curves.

But these obstacles are also what make the Twisted Sisters such an incredible driving experience. Perhaps the most difficult aspect of the drive is trying to take in the spectacular canyons and views out to the wide rolling hills while staying safe on the road.

Navigating the Twisted Sisters

The best way to experience the Twisted Sisters is to start in Medina and head west on 337. FM 337 is in the best condition of the three roads, and this relatively easy drive will help get you situated to the stark beauty of the terrain.

At Leakey, turn north onto FM 336. Here is the most challenging section of the Twisted Sisters (and the one with the most accidents), featuring a long succession of twists and turns with limited road visibility but maximum scenic views.

When you hit TX-41, head west until the junction with FM 335, where you will make a left to head back south. The return route on FM 335 saves the best for last. This isolated road winds its way along the course of the Nueces River as it heads back south. FM 335 will reconnect with FM 337 at Camp Wood to complete the loop.

Taking your time driving the Twisted Sisters allows you not only to savor the beauty but also to make a few pit stops along the way. The Apple Store Bakery & Cafe in Medina is a favorite lunch spot for the many motorcyclists who flock from around the country to this famous riding loop. Make another stop at the Lone Star Motorcycle Museum, which celebrates the Twisted Sisters' motorcycling heritage with a collection of rare and vintage bikes.

PAW PRINTS ON OUR HEARTS

It is with heavy hearts that Patriot PAWS reports the loss of two of our four-legged staff members: Jazz, retired demo dog, and Eli, feline dog trainer.

Jazz became primary demo dog after the retirement of her predecessor, Founding Dog, Beau. During her career, Jazz demonstrated to countless people the many things a Patriot PAWS service dog can do, and along the way, she and her handler, Lori Stevens, also had some adventures.

Most notably, Jazz met former President George W. Bush twice, rode on a float in the Tournament of Roses Parade and even had a photo of Lori and her displayed on an electronic billboard in Times Square after Patriot PAWS was selected as the Hunting Art Prize charity.

After she retired, Jazz still came to work with Lori and new demo dog, Pierce. Ever the canine first lady of Patriot PAWS, she established herself as the official door greeter, welcoming old friends and new to the training center with her signature hula-style tail wag.

Eli, our first feline dog trainer, came to Patriot PAWS in 2010 after being found outside asleep with two dogs. The dogs' owner called Lori and offered her "a cat who thinks he's a dog". Since Lori had just learned that one of our placed service dogs had chased a cat, she took the opportunity to add feline tolerance to the training curriculum.

Eli was indeed no ordinary cat. During his career at Patriot PAWS, he visited our prison program in Gatesville to help with the training, and he rode in the Patriot PAWS vehicle in the Dallas Veterans Day Parade. Plus, he had his own newsletter column, "Eli's Corner".

Eli never met a canine, or a human, he didn't like. And no one, even the most ardent "dog person", could resist his charm. He had an "old soul" way about him, as if he possessed a quiet wisdom that transcended species. Those who knew him through his newsletter persona were amused by a cat living in a dog's world, but the staff and volunteers who knew him personally considered him a friend. Quite simply, to know Eli was to love him.

Support Patriot PAWS when you buy groceries!!!

By linking your rewards card at Kroger, Tom Thumb, Amazon Smiles and others to benefit Patriot PAWS, they donate a percentage of your purchases to the charity.

Great meeting!! We had a guest speaker introduced by Len Woodruff. Joe Dryer of Detail Garage in Prosper told of his family owned and operated detail store. He shared his knowledge of inside and outside detail solutions using Chemical Guys products. He is a retail supplier of detail products but said he does have detailers he can recommend. Their business is located near Hwy 380 and Dallas North Tollway in Prosper. They have also become the new owners of the Detail Garage in North Richland Hills. Joe told of his products, their uses and briefed us on detailing classes they offer. They have a detail class ($99.99) and a polishing class ($199.99). Both classes are about 5 hours, a 1.5-hour slide show, followed by a 3-hour hands-on session. Both include lunch. He also offers a 5-day master detail class on the business of detailing, 2 days of how to do a business startup and interact with customers followed by 3 days of car detail training.

Then Joe gave away prizes! He had a number of products with him and the grand prize was a full detailing kit of the winners choice of products. This was won by Vic Pacheco who shared it with Phil Schlit. Three winners of a Chemical Guys work bucket and product were Walter Plumley, Gregg Manning, and Craig Conde.

Diane Preston reminded all of the April 22 trip to Tulsa to visit the John Neas collection and the Sam Pack Auto Group show on the same day in Farmers Branch.

May 13 meeting will be at Spring Creek BBQ in RICHARDSON (not McKinney). June 10 meeting will be at Outback Steak House in Plano.

Dennis Conte's dinner cruise is planned to Marty B's BBQ in Bartonville on Saturday April 29. Meet up at 1:30 at the McDonalds on Justin Rd. just west of I-35E. Another cruise is planned for May 20 to the Rock Yard in Trenton, more details at the next meeting.

Bill Foote reported that he has done a test run of the route for the Fredricksburg trip in November. The trip will start from Huffine's Chevrolet in Lewisville and stop about 2.5 hours later for lunch at the Koffee Kup Family Restaurant in Hico, TX for lunch. Friday night dinner will be at the Barkyard BBQ around the corner from the hotel. Saturday, Dennis Conte will lead a drive on the Twisted Sisters, the windiest road in Texas! Other activities will be available as well. There are 11 couples signed up at this point.

Ken Dobbs needed to resign as our Weekend/Weekday Wrench coordinator. We need to recruit someone to replace him. There's not a lot of activity currently but if you're interested please let Sam know.

The Pate Swap Meet will be at Texas Motor Speedway from April 27-29.

Oklahoma NCRS will have a judge training event on April 15 in Tulsa. A judging event will be April 29 in Stillwater, OK. The NCRS National Convention will be July 23-27, 2023 in French Lick, IN.

The By-Laws review is complete. While other clubs have their bylaws available online, a login is required for members only. Our club is not set up for this, therefore the club secretary (Sharon Conde) will keep the latest version so members can request a printed or PDF from her at any time if needed.
